1914 – 2014: „United States of Europe“ was a crucial future perspective of the League’s predecessor “Bund Neues Vaterland (League New Fatherland)” being seen as precondition for the implementation of peace, as well as economic and social justice between and within the European states in 1914. Has the present EU helped that vision to come true on the European level and domestically within its member states? A festive colloquium organized by the German League conducted together with guests from sister Leagues in the International Federation of the Leagues of Human Rights (FIDH) as well as AEDH Invited speakers Dimitris Christopoulos FIDH vice president and board member of the Hellenic League for human rights (HLHR)
